

Lieutenant Commander Marc C. Schuh United States Navy

Lieutenant Commander Schuh is a native of St. Inigoes, MD and enlisted in the Navy as a Submarine Quartermaster in 1990. His enlisted tours included USS RICHARD B. RUSSELL (SSN 687), USS HARTFORD (SSN 768), Commander Submarine Group NINE, and Assistant Navigator onboard USS MIAMI (SSN 755). Lieutenant Commander Schuh was commissioned as an Ensign through the Limited Duty Officer program in March 2004 and reported as the Electronics Material Officer onboard USS FORD (FFG 54). While onboard, he was selected as the Junior Officer Tactician of the Year for 2006.

Transferring in September 2007, Lieutenant Commander Schuh reported as the Electronics Material Officer onboard USS SHOUP (DDG 86). While onboard, he was selected for the Navy and Marine Association Leadership Award for 2008.

In December 2009, Lieutenant Commander Schuh reported as the Assistant Officer in Charge, Naval Computer and Telecommunications Area Master Station Pacific Detachment Puget Sound.

Transferring in June 2011, Lieutenant Commander Schuh reported as the Combat Systems Maintenance Officer onboard USS NIMITZ (CVN 68). While onboard, Combat Systems department earned the Combat Systems Green "CS" for unprecedented material and Fleet Readiness.

In September 2013, Lieutenant Commander Schuh reported as the Deputy N6 onboard Naval Ocean Processing Facility, Whidbey Island.

Lieutenant Commander Schuh holds a Master of Science degree in Project Management from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. His personal awards include and the ones he is most proud of are the Battle Efficiency Award (five awards), Presidential Unit Citation, Navy Unit Citation (two awards), and Meritorious Unit Citation all signifying collective team achievements.

Lieutenant Commander Schuh is married to his high school sweetheart and they have two adult children.